

CITY & REGIONAL PLANNING AWARDS – 2009

DEPARTMENT RECOGNITION AWARDS

Faculty representatives from the departments nominate and select students for: superior academic achievement for graduating seniors; demonstrated overall excellence in their studies; service contributions to their respective department; and willingness to help out in departmental and professional activities. These students contribute “above and beyond” to the operation of the departments.

Academic Excellence

Robert J. Hananouchi

BSCR

Laura P. Pennebaker

MCRP

Faculty Recognition

Jimmy M. Ochoa

BSCR

Kyle T. Perata

BSCR

Ryan M. Brough

BSCR

Kevin M. Fang

MCRP

Shauna E. Callery

MCRP

Adriana C. Neal

MCRP

SCHOLARSHIPS

Brett Berrier Memorial Scholarship ($2,000)

The Berrier family established this endowment in memory of their son, Brett Berrier, a 1980 CRP graduate. This endowment recognizes talented undergraduate and graduate students in the city and regional planning program who demonstrate high scholastic achievement and financial need.

Sean M. Tiedgen ($1,000 Scholarship) BSCR

Anthony S. Adams ($1,000 Assistantship) MCRP

City and Regional Planning Scholarship ($750)

This faculty award recognizes continuing undergraduate and graduate students who have demonstrated superior scholastic achievement, commitment, enthusiasm and cooperation.

Mark E. Polhemus ($375) BSCR

Nina F. Bellucci ($375) MCRP

Herbert E. Collins Scholarship ($1,200 each to an Architectural Engineering, Architecture and City and Regional Planning Students)

This scholarship is made possible through a generous endowment to the university in honor of Julian A. McPhee, the first president of Cal Poly. Upper division students (junior/senior/graduate) are selected for their academic achievement, industriousness and display of overall fine character.

Jessica M. Wafer ($1,200)

BSCR

Crawford Multari & Clark Associates Scholarship ($500)

Established by Crawford Multari & Clark Associates in 2003, this scholarship is awarded to a city and regional planning student who has demonstrated high scholastic achievement.

Darryl R. Mimick

MCRP

Paul Crawford Scholarship Endowment ($300)

The Crawford family and planning professionals have established this endowment in memory of Paul Crawford, a 1971 City and Regional Planning graduate. This scholarship is to recognize his life and what he has given to the department and the profession. It supports a student whose interests include the use of codes in the design of urban form.

Thomas J. Alexander

BSCR

Errett Family Scholarship ($3,600)

The Errett Family Scholarship is awarded to continuing graduate and undergraduate students who demonstrate interest in the urban planning profession.

Karl H. Eckert ($900)

BSCR

Jenna M. Borges ($900)

BSCR

Thomas J. Markel ($900)

MCRP

Danielle K. Castle ($900)

MCRP

Errett Fisher Foundation Grant ($27,000 for 2008-2009)

The Errett Fisher Foundation Fellowship Grant provides support to the City and Regional Planning Department for five years. These graduate fellowships provide support for students who have chosen to pursue a professional career in the planning field.

Thomas J. Markel ($9,000)

MCRP

Dalilah Z. Leval ($9,000)

MCRP

Katherine M. Stevenson ($9,000)

MCRP

Matthew D. Hubal Scholarship ($2,400)

The Hubal family established this scholarship in memory of their son, Matthew David Hubal, in 1994. This award recognizes a student who has shown exceptional academic excellence as well as community and campus humanitarian involvement.

Donald S. Nielsen ($1,200)

BSCRIP

Alex E. Padilla ($1,200)

BSCRIP

Michael McDougall Urban Design Scholarship ($600)

The Michael McDougall Urban Design Scholarship promotes excellence in urban design by providing educational opportunity to future practitioners of the planning profession. The scholarship is awarded to a city and regional planning undergraduate student who excels in urban design. Mike McDougall, who past away in April 2007, applied a unique and refined global approach to urban design. Students receiving this award are encouraged to undertake international studies to improve their skills.

Leeanne M. Singleton

BSCRIP

Sean Rogers Memorial Scholarship ($900)

RBF Consulting, family, friends, and colleagues established this scholarship in memory of Sean Rogers, a graduate of the City and Regional Planning Department. The scholarship is awarded to a student who shows evidence of talent and commitment in a career in urban planning and is working to support his/her educational expenses.

Justin P. LeVeque

BSCR

Helen Sandercock Memorial Scholarship ($1,200)

The Helen Sandercock Memorial Scholarship supports students with scholastic excellence and evidence of good character.

Elizabeth H. Lee

MCRP

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION AWARDS

American Institute of Certified Planning (AICP) Outstanding Student Award (Certificate)

The award is given to a graduating undergraduate and graduate student for outstanding professional promise and academic achievement.

Holly M. Fellows

BSCR

Colin B. Clarke

MCRP

California Planning Foundation Continuing Student Scholarship ($1,000 and one-year APA Membership)

The scholarship is given for outstanding professional promise and academic achievement and includes membership in the American Planning Association.

Joan E. Gargiulo

BSCR

Delilah Z. Leval

MCRP

California Planning Foundation Graduating Student Merit Award
(One-Year APA Membership)

This award is for one graduate and one undergraduate student who show professional promise in the planning profession. Students are nominated and selected by the city and regional planning faculty.

Ryan M. Brough

BSCR

Erik B. Simon

MCRP

